Alaskans Can Now Bid on 209 Parcels in State Land Auction

(Anchorage, AK) – The Department of Natural Resources (DNR) is inviting Alaskans interested in owning a piece of the Last Frontier to participate in the 2023 Alaska State Land Auction offering #495, which includes a mix of 209 road-accessible or remote parcels throughout the state.

“Alaskans are especially connected to the land in our great state, and buying property where you can build a home or enjoy the outdoors is an essential part of living here,” said Governor Mike Dunleavy. “Land auctions are just one of the ways DNR helps implement my administration’s vision of putting Alaska land into Alaskans’ hands, and I encourage everyone to consider taking advantage of this opportunity.”

Alaska residents may submit sealed bids online, in person, or by mail through Oct. 3 at 4:30 p.m. Apparent high bids will be announced Oct. 24. Bidders may win and purchase up to two parcels. Free auction brochures can be downloaded from the DNR Land Sales website: <https://dnr.alaska.gov/mlw/landsales/brochure/>.

Parcels not sold at auction may be available through Over-the-Counter (OTC) sales to Alaska residents, non-residents, or businesses, starting on Nov. 28 at 10:00 a.m. OTC parcels currently available for purchase are posted on the Land Sales website’s Over-the-Counter section. DNR offers competitive in-house financing for land purchases. For more information please visit: <https://dnr.alaska.gov/mlw/landsales/info/financing/>
